
Hebrew Calendars

When reading scripture after Israel's spiritual rebirth at Passover in Exodus 12, you know the number of the month refers to the second calendar. All the Lord's festivals are figured from the Religious calendar.

JEWISH MONTHS

EQUIVALENT MONTH

Civil	Order	Religious	Gregorian
Tishri	1.	Nisan, or Abib	March-April
Bul	2.	Tammuz	April-May
Chisleu	3.	Zif, or Iyar	May-June
Tebeth	4.	Sivan	June-July
Sebat	5.	Ab, or Av	July-August
Adar	6.	Elul	August-September
Nisan	7.	Tishri	September-October
Iyar	8.	Bul	October-November
Sivan	9.	Chisleu	November-December
Tammuz	10.	Tebeth	December-January
Ab	11.	Sebat	January-February
Elul	12.	Adar	February-March
	13.	Ve-Adar - added every third year

In order for the Jewish calendar to coincide with the correct seasons and our modern world Gregorian calendar of 365.25 days, seven times during a 19-year period, an extra month called Ve-Adar is added.
